Art Project: "Sketching the Past from the Internet"

Objective:

In this project, you will explore the internet to find a detailed image that represents the past. This can be a historical event, a famous person, old architecture, ancient technology, vintage fashion, or anything that reflects a different era in history. Once you've chosen your image, you will sketch it on paper, doing your best to match the details and structure of the original.

Instructions:

1. Search for an image online that represents the past. You can use sites like Google Images, Pinterest, museum websites, or other safe and appropriate resources.
2. Choose an image that has enough detail to be a challenge – the more detail, the better!
3. Print the image or save a copy (make sure you can refer to it while you draw).
4. Sketch the image by hand on paper. Your goal is to recreate the image as accurately as possible.
5. Pay attention to:
   o Shapes and proportions
   o Shading and lighting
   o Details and texture
6. At the end, submit both:
   o Your finished sketch
   o The original image (printed or digital copy)
